

LOVE... WHERE YOU LIVE

February 26, 2017
Motives Matter
Luke 10:1-7

TALK POINTS

1. The Denver-area Mayor said, "Most of the problems we have could be eliminated or greatly reduced if our city just had a sufficient number of really good neighbors." How could your role as a "really good neighbor" shape El Dorado?
2. How much time do you spend in your back yard versus your front yard? What can you do to be more available to your neighbors?
3. "A Great Commitment to the Great Commandment and the Great Commision makes a Great Church." How does this statement shape and influence your apprenticeship to Jesus?
4. How do I see God at work IN me? How do I see God at work AROUND me? How do I see God at work THROUGH me? And, What's one step I can take to participate in God's activity?
