

LOVE... WHERE YOU LIVE

March 12, 2017
Peacemaking
Ephesians 4:2-4

TALK POINTS

1. We have talked about Isaiah 53: 3-6 the past couple of weeks. Go back and re-read that passage again. What sticks out to you? How do you see it connect to our responsibility to be peacemakers?
2. If Easter is where the promise for peace was fulfilled and it wasn't just Christmas, how do the events of Holy Week connect to Isaiah and Ezekiel's prophecies of the Suffering Servant bringing peace?
3. Read Romans 5:9-11 in the message translation. What is the main message there? What do you think it means for you personally?
4. Look at your Block Map, fill in the names of your closest neighbors, write if they are a stranger-acquaintance-relationship. Pray for them by name or house number and then ask yourself these questions: How do I see God at work IN me? How do I see God at work AROUND me? How do I see God at work THROUGH me? And, What's one step I can take to participate in God's activity?
